Mr Mr 1871 (Green) 2. There seems to be no objection to post him permanently to the Comptr's office if he passes the Exn. But whether he should get the allowance from the day he passes the Examinations or from at once as a matter for orders -

(Colvert) 18.1.16

The representation made by the Comptroller has, in my humble opinion, considerable force. From the standpoint of efficiency of work and also of the character of the duties of an Account office, the proposals seem not unreasonable. They may be considered at a meeting of the Council of the First Member & Dewan approve.

Submitted to His Highness.

I submit herewith the 'Final Note' of the First Member of Council regarding the grant of a local allowance of Rs.50 per mensem to fully qualified Assistant Commissioners posted to the Comptroller's office.

2. This question has arisen in connection with the posting of Mr. S. Venkatarangam to the Comptroller's Office.

3. The recommendations of the Council as noted below may be graciously approved:-

(1) To permit fully qualified Assistant Commissioners to draw the local allowance of Rs.50 per mensem when posted to the Comptroller's office.

(2) To post Mr. Venkatarangam permanently to the Comptroller's office with a local allowance of Rs.50 on condition that if he fails to pass the Financial Examinations in two years he would be reverted.

Final Note by the First Member of Council.

Subject:— Question of granting the Local allowance of Rs50/- per mensem, to Mr.S.Venkatarangam, Officiating Assistant Comptroller.

In connection with the transfer of Mr. S.Venkatarangam, Assistant Commissioner, to the Comptroller's Office as officiating Assistant Comptroller, vice Mr.T.Lakshminarasimha Rao, the Comptroller recommended that he should be given the local allowance of Rs 50 allowed by para 3 of Government order no.Fl.I633/G.F.I3-I3-9 dated I7th September I9I3, even though he had not passed the required Account Tests, on the ground that he was a fully qualified Assistant Commissioner and required some incentive for the transfe to the Account Office, that the work in the latte office was of an ardous nature and living in Banglore costly. The Council were not inclined to sanction the proposal in the first instance as under existing orders. the officer would be eligible for the allowance only after passing the prescribed Account tests.

The Comptroller, however, urges his proposal over again and suggests that the Government Order referred to may be modified so as to make the allowance admissible to fully qualified Assistant Commissioners transferred to his office from the general line,and that Mr.Venkatarangam may be posted permanently to the Account Department

Department with a local allowance of Rs 50 on condition that, if he fails to pass the Financial Examinations in two years, he would be reverted and thereby lose the allowance.

11, These proposals, which appeared to be reasonable from the standpoint of efficiency of work and also of the character of the duties of the Account Office, were considered at a meeting of the Council and agreed to and may be approved.

SIR,

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No. Fl.2932/GL-Fin.102-15-2 dated 4th January 1916, stating that Mr. Venkata Rangam will not become eligible to draw the local allowance allowed to Assistant Comptrollers under para 3 of Government Order No. Fl.1653/GL-Fl.13-12-9 dated 17th September 1913, until he passes the prescribed tests, I have the honor to state that when this office suggested the grant of a Local Allowance and the Government sanctioned the same in the orders under reference to only such of the Assistant Comptrollers as have passed the prescribed tests, the contingency of transfers of fully qualified Assistant Commissioners from the general line to the Accounts Office had not been contemplated and was therefore not provided for.

2. Now that such a contingency has arisen by reason of transfers of two Assistant Comptrollers for duty elsewhere, and as Mr. Venkata Rangam is the first officer who having passed all the examinations required for general service under the Civil Service Rules, was selected on special consideration for duty in the Account Office, I beg leave to suggest that the contingency may be met by Subject matter.

Suggesting that if Mr. S. Venkatarangam does not fully qualify himself as an Account Officer by passing the prescribed tests, written 2 years, he will be reverted to the General line and thereby lose the allowance of Rs. 50/- making an additional proviso to the Government Order of September 1913, so as to admit of the local allowance being granted to fully qualified Assistant Commissioners transferred to this Office from the General Line.

3. On account of the specially arduous and trying nature of the work in an Accounts Office, it is not fair to transfer efficient officers in the general line for duty in Accounts Office without giving them the benefit of the modest local allowance of Rs.50/-.

4. Mr. Venkata Rangam assures me that if Government decide to keep him permanently or for a long time in the Accounts Department he will go up for the Government of India Financial Examinations and pass them within a reasonable time. At present he is only appointed to officiate in this department without any period being specified and it is hardly reasonable to expect him to go up for two stiff departmental tests-one of them of a thoroughly practical nature, under the circumstances. As an inducement to him to go up at this period of life for the two examinations I recommend that Government may kindly post him permanently to the department with a local allowance of Rs.50/- on condition that if he does not fully qualify himself as an Accounts Officer by passing the prescribed tests within two years he will be reverted to the general line and thereby lose the allowance. If this suggestion is not accepted I am afriad there will be no inducement for him to remain in this department; on the other hand he will work under a sense of grievance and always try to get away.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Jchakravarti
